"This belly achingly funny show is 100% worth every penny"
aussietheatre.com

Having played over 100 sell out shows in Ireland during 2009 and 2010 Basil, Sybil and Manuel return to serve you dinner and a feast of comic delights, some familiar some off the cuff but all with a "Faulty" seasoning and a guarantee to keep you laughing all the way to the desert.

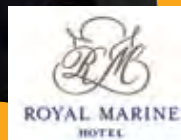

Faulty Towers...the dining experience has been winning fans and accolades at Edinburgh, Melbourne and Adelaide Festivals for the last three years.

Featuring all the best gags and a great meal, Faulty Towers... the dining experience is a loosely-scripted, pitch-perfect '13th episode' of the TV series which develops the characters made famous by John Cleese, Prunella Scales and Andrew Sachs.

Ardal O'Hanlon

"A complete joy to watch"
The Guardian

Visiting Pavilion Theatre for the very first time, don't miss award winning comedian, actor, writer - and star of Father Ted (C4), My Hero (BBC 1), Val Favey (RTE) and Leagues Apart (RTE), Ardal O'Hanlon brings his unique brand of stand-up comedy back to Ireland.

A highly acclaimed stand up, Ardal has toured to sell out audiences internationally and has released two Top Ten stand-up DVD's.

He continues to be one of the most sought after comedians working with regular sell out solo tours in the UK, USA and Australia. With guest leads in programmes as diverse as Skins (C4) and Doctor Who (BBC), Ardal also stars in the feature film, Wide Open Spaces.

His debut novel The Talk of the Town remained in the Best Seller charts for more than 6 months and was recently voted one of the 1001 books to read before you die.

Programme:

Mastering the art of the story
Digital Activism
The future of information
The future of publishing

And much more...

Media Future is Ireland's leading conference exploring the future of the media, communications, and technology industries. It will bring together 30 of the world's leading people from these industries to chart the extraordinary transformation of the media and identify the key trends, technologies and topics that will shape the future.

The last five years have seen more change and upheaval in the media than at any point in history. Everywhere you look the traditional ways of printing, broadcasting, publishing, and communicating are exploding and being challenged by new technologies.

Over 2 days there will be 30 speakers and four great workshops. For a full schedule including workshop and session information, full list of speakers and attendees, and booking information, go to www.mediafuture.ie

Media Future is produced by Mediacontact.ie, Ireland's leading media intelligence agency.

It is sponsored by Dún Laoghaire-Rathdown County Council, IADT, Diageo, UCD Smurfit Business School, XM Solutions, AvTek, Aer TV and Marks and Spencer.

Translunar Paradise takes you on a journey of life, death, and enduring love. After his wife passes away, William escapes to a paradise of fantasy and past memories, a place far from the reality of his grief. Returning from beyond the grave, Rose revisits her widowed companion to perform one last act of love: to help him let go.

Using a live accordion accompaniment this exquisite piece of mask and movement theatre was an award winning sellout at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2011.

Translunar Paradise is a co-production with The Lowry, Salford Quays, Midlands Arts Centre (MAC) & BE Festival, Birmingham and The Ustinov, Bath.

Rough Magic presents

Travesties

By Tom Stoppard
Directed by Lynne Parker

Following the hugely successful and popular Plaza Suite, Rough Magic are back at Pavilion Theatre with the delicious comedy Travesties by Tom Stoppard.

Best-known as the author of the Oscar-winning film Shakespeare in Love and the plays Rosencrantz and Guildenstern are Dead and Arcadia, Stoppard is at his "diabolically clever" best in this absurdly funny masterpiece featuring James Joyce, Vladimir Lenin and artist Tristan Tzara.

Zurich 1917: exiles take refuge from the Great War in neutral Switzerland. Joyce is writing Ulysses and Lenin is planning a revolution. Stoppard creates a brilliant fantasia around the real-life incident of Joyce deciding to stage Oscar Wilde's The Importance of Being Earnest.

"A tinder-box of a play blazing with wit, irony, and yes, ideas. It is exhilarating, diabolically clever." Time

Martin Hayes & Dennis Cahill

"If your live music rations were limited to a single concert in the entire year, then you'd be either crazy or foolish if you didn't pass that precious time in the company of Martin Hayes and Dennis Cahill."
Irish Times

Together they have garnered international renown for taking traditional music to the very edge of the genre, holding listeners spellbound with their slow-building, fiery performances. Martin Hayes has been an All-

Ireland fiddle champion six times over; he was awarded the prestigious 2008 Musician of the Year award from Ireland's Irish language television TG4, and at the inaugural BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards. Dennis Cahill is a master guitarist, whose innovative accompaniment is acknowledged as being a major breakthrough for guitar in the Irish tradition.

Five Ways to Drown

"Exploring how we might metaphorically drown -- or play -- in everyday life, five dancers aged 11 to 70, move in the ambiguous zone between waving, drowning, childhood memories and the unexpected joys of domestic DIY" The Irish Independent

The living room strewn on the front garden for all to see... Five Ways to Drown looks into the interior of family life and exposes the sadness, the absurdity and the banality through vignettes of dance - theatre and installation.

In this public display of the private, the choreography of everyday life becomes extraordinary.

Winners of the Culture Ireland Touring Award in 2008 and listed in both The Sunday Times and the Irish Times as a cultural highlight in 2011 for their production of Bird with boy at Dublin's Kilmainham Gaol.

"Five Ways to Drown is absorbing and affecting"

The Love Hungry Farmer

By John B Keane

"Fiercely serious and bruisingly hilarious" New York Times

"Des Keogh is superb. A consummate actor wedded to a skilled raconteur, the wine he offers is vintage" Irish Times

Des Keogh, one of Ireland's foremost actors and entertainers, returns with his hugely successful and award winning show The Love Hungry Farmer by John B Keane.

It tells the story of John Bosco McLane, a bachelor of 'indeterminate' age and according to his own assessment, 'past his best' and evidently still a virgin. McLane's amorous adventures range from the hilarious to the pitiful.

JOHN B KEANE ranks among the great Irish writers. His plays include SIVE, THE FIELD and BIG MAGGIE. His 'Letters' series of books were a spectacular success, with The Love Hungry Farmer being particularly outstanding.

David Kitt presents Small Moments

"There's an otherness at work here, an ability to subvert prettiness and a knack for bending a melody that announces a special talent..." Mojo

This July, for the first time since its release in 2000, David Kitt will be performing his debut album Small Moments in its entirety at Pavilion Theatre. This intimate collection of home recordings received rave reviews and won a legion of admirers including David Bowie, Graham Linehan and the great Bob Harris (Old Grey Whistle Test).

ONLY DUBLIN

Kitt will be accompanied by his brother Robbie who memorably featured on the album aged just 10 at the time, but who is now an accomplished musician in his own right. In addition to performing Small Moments, they will perform a second set of material spanning Kitt's ten-year career and some brand new songs.

An Intimate and Acoustic Evening

"Is it too early to start talking about the Irish Album of the Year?"
Metro Herald

"The sound of a band rejuvenated and at the top of their game....one of the finest Irish releases of recent times." Entertainment.ie

Following the successful release of their third album Little Sparks, Delorentos are set to perform a seldom seen intimate acoustic set at Pavilion Theatre this Summer.

Recorded with Mercury Music Prize Award Winner Rob Kirwan (PJ Harvey), the 12 tracks are the fully-fledged fruits of the band's recordings over 2011 and display a depth of song writing prowess that ably eclipses the band's first two albums and offers a real insight into the ever-growing potential of the band.

DLR GLASTHULE OPERA PAVILION THEATRE JUNE 16-20 2010

Set in Windsor in the 15th century, Verdi's final opera Falstaff is a three act lyric comedy based on Shakespeare's The Merry Wives of Windsor and Henry IV.

Equal parts orchestral virtuosity and riotously paced comedy, the opera is a perfect fusion of renaissance realism and light-hearted fantasy.
