★★★★★ New York Times

Mon 13 Oct, 8pm

€7.50/6.50 (Season Ticket Available)

Cert 15A | Language: French

Once a great actor, Serge Tanneur has thrown in the towel and retired from the limelight. For the past three years, he has lived in solitude. That is until fellow actor, Gauthier turns up to entice him back onto the stage. But will they be able to put their egos aside for the sake of friendship and theatre?

The Golden Dream

(La Juala de Oro)

★★★★★ The Irish Times

Mon 20 Oct, 8pm

€7.50/6.50 (Season Ticket Available)

Cert: Club | Language: Spanish

Three teenagers from the slums of Guatemala, attempt the 1,200 mile-long arduous border crossing into the US. They travel in freight trains and walk the railroad tracks, but soon have to face a harsh reality. This is a heart-wrenching story of hope, friendship and survival, and a profound homage to the treacherous journey thousands of immigrants undertake each year.

The Grand Seduction

★★★★★ New York Times

Mon 27 Oct, 8pm

€7.50/6.50 (Season Ticket Available)

Cert 12A | Language: English

The small harbour of Tickle Cove is in dire need of investment. When a vital factory contract comes their way, the residents of this small Newfoundland fishing village conspire to charm a big-city doctor into becoming the town's full-time physician in this sparkling comedy starring Brendan Gleeson. No doctor...no contract; and so begins 'the grand seduction'.

In Acting Shakespeare

Thu 16 Oct, 8pm | €18/16

Early Bird Tickets Available

Written & Performed by James DeVita

"a splendid, delightfully personal comedic concoction"

Backstage.com

Direct from Off-Broadway comes the funny, touching and uplifting story of one man's discovery of Shakespeare, acting and language. Based on Sir Ian McKellen's "Performing Shakespeare", DeVita tells the story of a young fisherman searching for a new career. A fun and fervent tribute weaving Shakespeare's life with reminiscences of James' own days (and nights) as a classical actor.

Ian McEwan

in Conversation with Declan Hughes

LITERARY

Sun 19 Oct, 8pm | €10/8

www.paviliontheatre.ie

Few novelists encapsulate moral dilemmas in fiction as adroitly and eloquently as Ian McEwan. His novels dramatize situations of extreme ethical ambiguity which provoke in his characters and readers the need for nuanced responses.

In his new novel, The Children Act, the clash of religious beliefs and adult responsibility are delicately explored by one of the UK's finest writers.

Defender of the Faith

Thu 23 – Sat 25 Oct, 8pm | €18/16

Early Bird Tickets Available (Thu only)

Age Suitability: 15+

One of the most anticipated productions of 2014, Defender of the Faith is the debut play of Stuart Carolan, the author and creator of RTE'S infamous, LOVE/HATE.

Defender of the Faith directed by Andrew Flynn is a brilliant thriller set on a farm in Armagh in 1986. The play tells the story of a family entrenched in paramilitarism and under the constant watch of British forces.

When a visitor arrives with the job of rooting out a police informer, paranoia grips the farm. Under suspicion, the isolated farm becomes the setting for the electrifying exploration of a family tested by loyalty and love. Defender of the Faith is blackly comic and chillingly real, with an atmosphere taut with menace.
