MUSIC

An Evening with Mary Coughlan

Fri 15 Sep, 8pm | €23/21

The National Folk Theatre of Ireland presents

The grief of Billie Holiday, the soul of Van Morrison and the defiance of Edith Piaf...

Mary Coughlan has often been described as the greatest female vocalist and interpreter of songs that Ireland has ever produced. Her music career has been a roller coaster, one hell of a ride, and this concert will reflect that, featuring all the songs that are close to Mary's heart and life.

With ten albums and over thirty years in the music business, Mary proudly stands alongside the iconic giants of jazz on both sides of the Atlantic. Her unique voice blends the husky notes of Billie Holiday, the dirty blues of Memphis Minnie, along with the bitter-sweet defiance and despair of Edith Piaf.

Sat 16 Dec, 8pm | €23/21

Following consistent sell-out shows, year after year at Pavilion Theatre, we're delighted to welcome Eimear back for her Christmas concert.

In this intimate, spiritual night, Eimear will perform her own special rendition of Christmas songs and carols in this memorable musical experience. Eimear's ethereal voice will blend beautifully with string quartet & guitar, so sit back and let the hustle and bustle fade away.
