Back once again due to overwhelming demand, the award-winning Mikel Murfi returns with his one-man, hit show The Man in the Woman's Shoes. Set in 1978, the play follows Pat, an ageing man with boundless enthusiasm for life, as he attends to 'some business' in town. This hilariously funny play will leave you feeling uplifted.

IHear You and Rejoice Written & performed by Mikel Murci Fri 21 & Sat 22 Apr, 8pm | €18/16

Following the sell-out success of The Man In The Woman's Shoes, Mikel Murfi returns with a new one-man show.

Late in his life, Pat Farnon, a cobbler and all-round contented man, marries the redoubtable Kitsy Rainey. It's a match made in heaven, in more ways than one. This new show is a tender and joy filled account of a most unlikely marriage.

If you loved The Man in the Woman's Shoes, then this is a must-see!

Following sold out shows last year, the master of mirth is back with his own unique brand of his irreverent humour.

2016 was another busy year for the perennially popular star of The Blame Game, which celebrates its 10th birthday on TV this year. With that, a science comedy series for RTE2 and his radio show on Today FM under his belt, now he is back to where it all started, talking to strangers in rooms for money.
