WITH SPECIAL THANKS TO DÚN LAOGHAIRE RATHDOWN COUNTY COUNCIL

Summer 1993 (Estiu 1993)

★★★★★ "Miraculous child performances" The Guardian
"Movingly understated and beautifully acted"
The New York Times

Mon 3 Sep, 5pm & 8pm

€8.50/7.50 (Season Ticket Available)

Catalan | Cert: Club | 2017 | 97mins

In Carla Simón's touching, autobiographical, debut film, six-year-old Frida must go to live on her uncle's farm following the death of her mother. Punctuated by moments of youthful exuberance and mature ruminations, this coming-of-age drama is an extraordinarily moving snapshot of a child struggling to process emotions in an adult world, anchored by flawless performances by its two young stars.

Best First Feature, Berlin International Film Festival 2017

Michael Inside

★★★★★ RTÉ
★★★★★ The Sunday Times

Mon 10 Sep, 5pm & 8pm

€8.50/7.50 (Season Ticket Available)

English | Cert: Club | 2017 | 96mins

From Dublin writer-director Frank Berry, Michael Inside tells the story of a luckless and impressionable eighteen-year-old whose life is changed dramatically when he is sent to Mountjoy Prison. Vulnerable and alone, Michael is taken under the wing of a score-settling, older prisoner (Moe Dunford), and is exposed to violence and intimidation in this genre-defying, critical smash.

Best Irish Feature, Galway Film Fleadh 2017

Best Film, Irish Film & Television Awards 2017

The Guardians (Les gardiennes) Mon 24 Sep, 5pm & 8pm

"stirring emotional force" The New York Times
 ★★★★★ "The performances are extraordinary"
The San Francisco Chronicle

£8.50/7.50 (Season Ticket Available)

French | Cert: Club | 2017 | 138mins

Unfolding against the backdrop of rural France during World War I, this affecting human drama of love, loss, and resilience is a striking homage to the women left behind. With their men at war, Hortense and her daughter Solange take over the running of the family farm, acquiring a newfound independence. But emotions are stirred when the men return from the front on short leave, upsetting the natural balance in the process.

C'est la vie!

★★★★★ The Seattle Times
 "hugely enjoyable romp" The Hollywood Reporter

Mon 1 Oct, 5pm & 8pm

£8.50/7.50 (Season Ticket Available)

French | Cert: Club | 2017 | 117mins

A triumphant return for The Intouchables directors Olivier Nakache and Éric Toledano, with this gloriously manic, ensemble comedy which revels in chaos. Wedding planner Max is staging a lavish wedding at a 17th-Century chateau, during the course of which he must deal with a volatile assistant, rebellious waiters, a demanding groom, dodgy electricians, a substitute DJ and much more besides.

The Heiresses (Las herederas) Mon 8 Oct, 5pm & 8pm

★★★★★ Variety
 "Beautiful storytelling" The Seattle Times

£8.50/7.50 (Season Ticket Available)

Spanish | Cert: Club | 2018 | 95mins

Paraguayan writer-director Marcelo Marinessi's drama follows Chela and Chiquita, a long term same-sex couple descended from wealthy Asunción families. When financial troubles lead to Chiquita being imprisoned on fraud charges, Chela finds herself back in her home town, providing a local taxi service to a group of elderly, wealthy ladies and embarking on a journey of self-discovery.
Best Film, Sydney Film Festival 2018

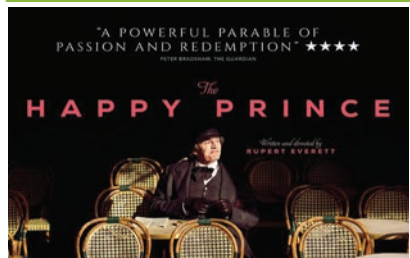

The Happy Prince

★★★★★ The Times
 ★★★★★ "A deeply felt, tremendously acted tribute to courage" The Guardian

Mon 15 Oct, 5pm & 8pm

£8.50/7.50 (Season Ticket Available)

English | Cert: 15A | 2018 | 105mins

This captivating performance from writer, director and star Rupert Everett, recounts the untold story of the last days in the life of Irish playwright Oscar Wilde.

Forced into exile following his release from prison, Wilde courageously lives out his last years by falling back on the creativity, charm and wit that defined him, and taking solace in his lover Bosie (Colin Morgan) and his best friend Reggie (Colin Firth).

Under the Tree (Undir trénu)

★★★★ The Washington Post
Best Film Nominee, Venice Film Festival 2017

Mon 22 Oct, 5pm & 8pm

€8.50/7.50 (Season Ticket Available)

Icelandic | Cert: Club | 2017 | 89mins

Icelandic director Hafsteinn Gunnar Sigurdsson's tense thriller follows a dispute between neighbours over an old and beautiful tree that is casting a shadow. What starts as a typical spat between suburban neighbours unexpectedly and violently spirals out of control. Pitch black in its humour, Under the Tree is a dark, wry and absurdly hilarious drama.

Best Cinematography, Dublin Film Critics Circle Awards 2018

Leave No Trace

★★★★★ Wall Street Journal
"a delicate family drama" The Irish Times

Mon 29 Oct, 5pm & 8pm

€8.50/7.50 (Season Ticket Available)

English | Cert: PG | 2018 | 109mins

Leave No Trace tells the story of Will (Ben Foster) and his teenage daughter who have lived off the grid for years in the vast forests of Portland, Oregon. When the authorities discover them, their idyllic life is shattered and both are put into social services but yearn to return to the wilderness. A sensitive and enthralling film from Debra Granik with intense and touching performances.

Cold War (Zimna wojna)

★★★★★ The Irish Times
★★★★★ "mysterious, musically glorious and visually ravishing" The Guardian

Mon 12 Nov, 5pm & 8pm

€8.50/7.50 (Season Ticket Available)

Polish | Cert: Club | 2018 | 88mins

Based on the relationship of his own parents, this latest film from Oscar-winning director Paweł Pawlikowski (Ida) is a passionate love story, set against the moody backdrop of Cold War-era Europe. Told over 15 years and shot in stunning black and white, it follows Wiktor and Zula as their romance blossoms, wilts and faces many obstacles.

Best Director, Cannes Film Festival 2018

Apostasy

★★★★★ The Upcoming
★★★★★ "A supremely intelligent and gripping drama" The Guardian

Mon 19 Nov, 5pm & 8pm

€8.50/7.50 (Season Ticket Available)

English | Cert: Club | 2017 | 95mins

First-time British director Dan Kokotajlo draws on his own experiences as a former Jehovah's Witness to provide a unique insight into this gripping story of a family in crisis. Alex's questions and transgressions in the eyes of the church leave her devoted mother and sister to decide which is more important; their religious beliefs or love of one's family.

Official Selection, Toronto International Film Festival 2017

Lucky

★★★★★ The San Francisco Chronicle

"arguably the greatest performance of his long career"
Little White Lies

Mon 26 Nov, 5pm & 8pm

€8.50/7.50 (Season Ticket Available)

English | Cert: Club | 2017 | 88mins

This award-winning, first feature from actor-turned-director John Carroll Lynch (Fargo, Zodiac) allows Harry Dean Stanton (Cool Hand Luke) to shine as Lucky, a cantankerous, elderly atheist seeking the meaning of his life. Stanton's final on-screen performance as a 90-year-old, wartime veteran is funny, touching and beguiling, and all the more poignant in the knowledge that he passed away just days before the film's US cinema release.

Wajib

"...an intimate, well-played disquisition on what it means to be a Palestinian abroad versus a Palestinian at home." Variety

Mon 3 Dec, 5pm & 8pm

€8.50/7.50 (Season Ticket Available)

Arabic | Cert: Club | 2017 | 96mins

Shadi returns from Italy to his native Nazereth for his sister's upcoming marriage and has reluctantly agreed to honour his "wajib" or duty, to accompany his father in hand-delivering the invitations. Forced to spend time together after many years apart, past tensions and differences between father and son come to the surface, but so does some new understanding.

Best Foreign Language Film Submission Oscars 2018

The Rider

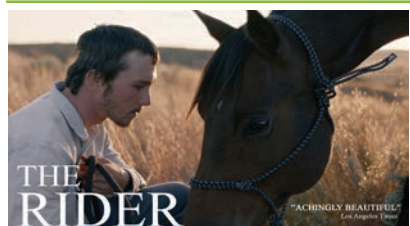

★★★★★ The Washington Post

"a gritty, graceful character study" Rolling Stone

Mon 10 Dec, 5pm & 8pm

€8.50/7.50 (Season Ticket Available)

English | Cert: Club | 2017 | 104mins

After suffering a near fatal head injury that halts his career, talented rodeo cowboy and horse trainer Brady, is forced to reevaluate his future. This contemporary western from acclaimed director Chloé Zhao was inspired by and stars real-life cowboy Brady Jandreau alongside his family, bringing a unique authenticity to this exploration of humanity.

Best Director, Dublin Film Critics Circle Awards 2018

CICAE Award, Cannes Film Festival 2017

The Wife

★★★★★ "smart, supremely watchable and entertaining...Close gives arguably her best ever performance" The Guardian

Mon 17 Dec, 5pm & 8pm

€8.50/7.50 (Season Ticket Available)

English | Cert: Club | 2017 | 100mins

Based on Meg Wolitzer's novel, Joan (Glenn Close) has spent forty years sacrificing her own talent, dreams and ambitions to support her charismatic husband Joe (Jonathan Pryce) and his skyrocketing literary career. She has ignored his infidelities with grace but on the eve of his Nobel Prize for Literature, she makes a cataclysmic decision and confronts some long buried secrets in this celebration of womanhood, self-discovery and liberation.

Sebastian Faulks in conversation with Edel Coffey

LITERARY & TALKS

Tue 4 Sep, 8pm | €12/10

Event followed by a Q&A and book-signing

Sebastian Faulks is widely regarded as one of the finest novelists of his generation. His magnum opus, Birdsong, has sold over two million copies. His new novel Paris Echo takes us back into the hidden Paris of the Dark Years, the Algerian war and the simmering discontents of the Banlieue, a haunted city of injustice and bad faith, of ghettos and betrayal.

The Return of Ulysses

An opera by Claudio Monteverdi

MUSIC

Fri 7 & Sat 8 Sep, 7.30pm | €33/30

In the first ever staging in Ireland of one of the greatest baroque operas, Monteverdi's magnificent music finds a perfect creative match with the human drama of Homer's Odyssey.

Ten years after the siege of Troy the hero Ulysses has still not found his way home. In Ithaca his wife Penelope has waited faithfully, hoping against hope that he may still be alive, meanwhile the suitors are circling...

Opera Collective Ireland joins forces with the world renowned Akademie für Alte Musik Berlin to showcase the finest young Irish singers in a new production led by Tony Award winning director Patrick Mason and conductor Christian Curnyn.

Performed in English with the Akademie für Alte Musik Berlin.

Irish National Opera

The Tales of Hoffmann

By Jacques Offenbach

Tue 18 Sep, 7.30pm | €38/35

Sung in French with English surtitles

MUSIC

One narrator. Drunk. The story of the women in his life. The complications of his current love and his current rival. And an evil shadow that follows him everywhere. A lyrical and effervescent opera with some of the 19th-Century's greatest tunes, director Tom Creed places the emotional roller coaster of Hoffmann's life and the characters of his world in a sharp contemporary setting. Eloquent tenor Julian Hubbard is the luckless hero, alongside spectacular soprano Claudia Boyle and majestic mezzo soprano Gemma Ni Bhriain, with some of Ireland's best singing talent joining the fray.

Mícheál Ó Súilleabháin

The Carolan Celebration

Sun 23 Sep, 8pm | €25

MUSIC

Widely recognised as one of the most influential forces in Irish traditional music, pianist, composer and educator Mícheál Ó Súilleabháin is noted for his development of a uniquely Irish traditional piano style.

Mícheál will perform a new series of suites for solo piano, featuring the music of nomadic Irish harper Turlough O'Carolan (1670-1738). Enduringly popular amongst traditional musicians, O'Carolan's music holds together traces of emerging traditional music along with survivals of the medieval Irish harping tradition.

King Lear by William Shakespeare

Tue 16 Oct, 7.30pm | €15/13

Cert: 12A | Duration: 220mins (incl. interval)

★★★★★ "Ian McKellen reigns supreme in this triumphant production." Daily Telegraph

Considered by many to be the greatest tragedy ever written, King Lear sees two ageing fathers – one a King, one his courtier – reject the children who truly love them. Their blindness unleashes a tornado of pitiless ambition and treachery.

Directed by Jonathan Munby, this contemporary retelling of Shakespeare's tender, moving and shocking play sees an "extraordinarily moving portrayal" (Independent) of King Lear by Ian McKellen.

Nina: A Story About Me & Nina Simone

MUSIC

Wed 17 Oct, 8pm | €25

★★★★★ The Scotsman

★★★★★ "searing one-woman" The Stage

★★★★★ "Josette Bushell-Mingo blows the roof off" Time Out

Backed by a brilliant band, Olivier Award-nominated actress Josette Bushell-Mingo OBE (Rafiki in The Lion King, London) mixes story and song, as she draws together tales from the life of Nina Simone and her own extraordinary career.

A searing and soulful theatre piece, Josette touches upon the 1960s civil rights movement, while drawing in parallel the struggles of the civil rights movement today.

Nina Simone was one of the most extraordinary artists of the twentieth century. She was the consummate musical storyteller who used her remarkable talent to create a legacy of liberation, empowerment, and love through a magnificent body of work.

"A thrilling, sometimes spine-tingling experience...catch it while you can." British Theatre Guide

The Man Who Invented Christmas

Thu 20 Dec, 5pm
English | Cert: PG | 2017 | 104mins

Charles Dickens has been struggling to come up with another bestseller. Tormented by writer's block, he searches for ideas for a Christmas story to capture the public's imagination. Shot on location in Ireland this festive and light-hearted feature will entertain and charm audiences of all ages.

Elf

Sat 22 Dec, 5pm
English | Cert: PG | 2003 | 97mins

Will Ferrell stars as Buddy, a human baby raised as an elf in the North Pole. Buddy heads to New York City to find his true place in the world, but soon realises that it's not all sugarplums and candy canes; his real father is a "Scrooge", his step brother doesn't believe in Santa, and everyone has forgotten the true meaning of Christmas!

It's A Wonderful Life

Sat 22 Dec, 8pm
English | Cert: PG | 1947 | 129mins

This moving and beautifully told film is a true masterpiece of cinema. In classic Hollywood style, Heaven sends a guardian angel to remind George Bailey how worthwhile his life has been and to treasure the good times when the going gets tough.

"inspirational and thoroughly festive" The Telegraph

Home Alone

Sun 23 Dec, 5pm
English | Cert: PG | 1990 | 103mins

In this classic Christmas comedy, 10-year-old Kevin (Macaulay Culkin) is inadvertently left home alone when his family go on holiday and must fend for himself. When two incompetent burglars (Joe Pesci & Daniel Stern) attempt to loot his house, Kevin fights back in a series of comic attacks.
