Take Off Your Cornflakes

Created and Performed by Rose Henderson and Pat Nolan

Wed 24 Apr, 8pm | €22/20

Tom and Trish have just celebrated their Silver Wedding Anniversary. But what happens when Tom wakes up with a strange woman beside him and she tells him she's his wife? And what does Trish do when she realises the person she loves is losing his mind? Inspired by Rose's Dad, Jack, who had Alzheimer's but couldn't remember he had cancer, Take Off Your Cornflakes is a tender, funny, heart-warming portrait of marriage with the best 'Dad Jokes' you've ever heard.

Fishamble's Haughey|Gregory, written by Colin Murphy (BAILED OUT!, GUARANTEED!) and directed by Conall Morrison, follows the deal made between Tony Gregory and Charles Haughey in 1982, when Gregory took a surprise Dáil seat – and suddenly found himself holding the balance of power.

Can Gregory use his vote to achieve something for his constituents? To do so, he will have to face off against the dominant personality of Irish politics – Charles J Haughey.

Royal Opera House (Live Screening)

Gounod's Faust: Live

CINEMA
& MUSIC

Tue 30 Apr, 6.45pm | €15/12

Sung in French with English Subtitles

Approx. Duration: 225mins (incl. interval)

Experience the decadence and elegance of 1870s Paris in David McVicar's spectacular production of Gounod's best-loved opera. There are many versions of the story of Faust, who trades his soul with the Devil for youth and power, but Gounod's opera remains one of the most constantly enthralling. Michael Fabiano stars as Faust, with Diana Damrau as his beloved Marguerite and Erwin Schrott as the diabolical Méphistophélès. Virtuoso leading roles, a large chorus, sensational sets, ballet and an ecstatic finale make this the epitome of theatrical spectacle.
