Can You Ever Forgive Me?

★★★★★ The Guardian
★★★★★ "A great film about friendship"
The Irish Times

Mon 6 May, 5pm & 8pm

€9/8 (Season Ticket Available)

English | Cert: 15A | 2018 | 108mins

Oscar nominee Melissa McCarthy stars in this true-life, comedic drama about the writer Lee Israel. When Lee finds herself cast out from the literary world, struggling to make rent, she turns her talent to the forgery. Aided by the rambunctious Jack Hock (Richard E Grant), Lee surreptitiously finds a new voice. Eloquent, humorous and poignant, together the two outsiders find a fleeting happiness and a new sense of purpose.

The 12th Man (Den 12. Mann)

★★★★ The Times
"A stirring adventure" Variety

Mon 13 May, 5pm & 8pm

€9/8 (Season Ticket Available)

Norwegian & German | Cert: Club | 2017 | 135mins

Norway, 1943. When a failed anti-Nazi sabotage mission leaves his eleven comrades dead, Norwegian resistance fighter Jan Baalsrud finds himself on the run from the Gestapo through the unforgiving, frozen wilderness of Scandinavia. This breathtaking film tells the incredible true-life story of one man's extraordinary courage and will to survive, and the everyday heroes who helped him along the way.

The House by the Sea (La villa)

★★★★ The Independent
★★★★ "The performances are impeccable" Empire

Mon 20 May, 5pm & 8pm

€9/8 (Season Ticket Available)

French | Cert: Club | 2017 | 107mins

When their aged father suffers a stroke, three distant siblings reunite to spend his final days together. Armand, who remained to help run the family restaurant is joined by Angele, a successful actress living in Paris, and sardonic and recently retired Joseph, who has just fallen in love with a girl half his age. As the estranged siblings reconnect they consider what they have inherited of their father's ideals and spirit.

Mon 27 May, 5pm & 8pm

€9/8 (Season Ticket Available)

French & Flemish | Cert: 16 | 2018 | 106mins

15-year-old Lara dreams of becoming a professional ballerina. When accepted into ballet school, her dream seems closer than ever. But there is one problem; Lara was born into the body of a boy – a body that she will push to its limits in order to succeed. Lara's frustrations and impatience are heightened as she faces not only the rigors of ballet training but adolescent turmoil and physical transition.

The Kindergarten Teacher

★★★★★ The Guardian
 "Rippling with psychological complexity"
 The Hollywood Reporter

Mon 3 Jun, 5pm & 8pm

€9/8 (Season Ticket Available)

English | Cert: Club | 2018 | 99mins

Maggie Gyllenhaal gives a stand-out performance as a kindergarten teacher who discovers what may be a child prodigy in her class. She becomes fascinated and obsessed with the child, spiralling downward on a dangerous and desperate path in order to nurture his talent. Gyllenhaal's "fiercely brilliant" (IndieWire) portrayal of the seemingly patient and caring teacher is a remarkable portrait of the psyche of a disillusioned woman.

Ash is Purest White (Jiang hu er nü)

★★★★ The Guardian
 "Fierce, gripping and emotional" Los Angeles Times

Mon 10 Jun, 5pm & 8pm

€9/8 (Season Ticket Available)

Chinese (Mandarin) | Cert: Club | 2018 | 141mins

During a fight between rival gangs, Qiao fires a gun to protect her gangster boyfriend – an act of loyalty that ends her up in prison. Upon her release she discovers he has abandoned her and sets out to seek revenge. Set in the Chinese underworld, this critically acclaimed crime melodrama unfolds through a three-part story in different time frames, portraying extraordinary social, economic and cultural changes.

Mon 15 Jul, 5pm & 8pm

€9/8 (Season Ticket Available)

English | Cert: 12A | 2018 | 101mins

Kenneth Branagh's warm family drama focuses in on the final years in the life of renowned playwright William Shakespeare. Returning to Stratford Upon Avon in 1613 after a fire destroys his beloved Globe Theatre, a devastated Shakespeare struggles to mend broken relationships with his neglected wife (Judi Dench) and daughters. With simmering family tensions coming to the surface, the film reflects on the cost of a life dedicated to art.

Woman at War (Kona fer í stríð)

★★★★ "visually stunning" The Washington Post
Best Screenplay, Cannes Film Festival 2018

€9/8 (Season Ticket Available)

Icelandic | Cert: Club | 2018 | 101mins

Halla is a music teacher who leads a quiet, routine life. But unbeknown to most she is also 'The Mountain Woman'; a covert environmentalist who disrupts the operations of an aluminium plant in the Icelandic highlands by committing acts of industrial sabotage. As the authorities intensify their campaign to catch 'The Mountain Woman', she receives an update on a long forgotten adoption application and must choose between her activism and her dream of becoming a mother.

Barry McGovern in Watt by Samuel Beckett

THEATRE

Thu 18 – Sat 20 Apr, 8pm

Matinee: Sat 20 Apr, 2.30pm

€26/23

A wide-eyed stranger alights from a country train. The destination: Mr Knott's house. The mission: to serve. Samuel Beckett's wit and wisdom combine in the story of a nomadic manservant in the house of his unseen master.

Watt comes to the stage in a one-man production of sparkling humour and heart-stirring poignancy. This is a rare opportunity to see the master's work performed by one of the greatest Beckett interpreters in the world – Barry McGovern.

Directed by Tom Creed.

★★★★ "A gem of a show" Time Out

A sensational staging packed with colour, action and powerful music providing the fullest theatrical treatment for this story of bitter revenge.

Take Off Your Cornflakes

THEATRE

Created & Performed by Rose Henderson & Pat Nolan

Wed 24 Apr, 8pm | €22/20

Tom and Trish have just celebrated their Silver Wedding Anniversary. But what happens when Tom wakes up with a strange woman beside him and she tells him she's his wife? And what does Trish do when she realises the person she loves is losing his mind? Inspired by Rose's Dad Jack, who had Alzheimer's but couldn't remember he had cancer, Take Off Your Cornflakes is a tender, funny, heart-warming portrait of marriage with the best 'Dad Jokes' you've ever heard.

★★★★ "Very moving performances"
Irish Mail on Sunday

Fishamble: The New Play Company

Haughey|Gregory

Thu 25 – Sat 27 Apr, 8pm | €25/23

Written by Colin Murphy | Directed by Conall Morrison

Age Guidance: 12yrs+ (occasional strong language)

Fishamble's Haughey|Gregory, written by Colin Murphy (Guaranteed!, Bailed Out!) and directed by Conall Morrison, follows the deal made between Tony Gregory and Charles Haughey in 1982, when Gregory took a surprise Dáil seat - and suddenly found himself holding the balance of power. Can Gregory use his vote to achieve something for his constituents? To do so, he will have to face off against the dominant personality of Irish politics - Charles J Haughey.

★★★★ "A tale worth telling, and one most certainly worth hearing." The Arts Review

"Funny and fascinating slice of recent political history" Irish Independent

"The wit is razor-sharp...brilliant" Politics.ie

Cast: Ruairi Heading, Morgan C Jones, Janet Moran, Michael Glenn Murphy & Jonathan White.

Royal Opera House (Live Screening)

Gounod's Faust: Live

Tue 30 Apr, 6.45pm | €15/12

Sung in French with English subtitles

Approx. Duration: 225mins (incl. interval)

Experience the decadence and elegance of 1870s Paris in David McVicar's spectacular production of Gounod's best-loved opera. There are many versions of the story of Faust, who trades his soul with the Devil for youth and power, but Gounod's opera remains one of the most constantly enthralling.

Michael Fabiano stars as Faust, with Diana Damrau as his beloved Marguerite and Erwin Schrott as the diabolical Méphistophélès.

Virtuoso leading roles, a large chorus, sensational sets, ballet and an ecstatic finale make this the epitome of theatrical spectacle.

The Rape of Lucrece by William Shakespeare

Performed by Feargal Murray & Camille O'Sullivan

Wed 3 & Thu 4 Jul, 8pm | €28/25

In this exquisite interpretation of Shakespeare's tragic poem, The Rape of Lucrece, internationally acclaimed Irish actress and singer Camille O'Sullivan narrates the fates of Tarquin and Lucrece. Inhabiting the souls of both characters, Camille weaves a tale of violence and lust, innocence and power. The poem's tragedy is fully revealed in this visceral production through the hypnotic musical performance of twelve songs with O'Sullivan's long-time collaborator Feargal Murray. The original production was staged to great acclaim and sold out houses at the Edinburgh Festival (2012), Sydney Festival (2013) and Dublin Theatre Festival (2013).

★★★★ "The incomparable Camille O'Sullivan is unquestionably the real deal." The Arts Review

"O'Sullivan's performance is brilliant and touching...this poetic and musical sequence is an ideal vehicle for her talent." The Irish Independent

The Man in the Woman's Shoes & I Hear You and Rejoice by Mikel Murfi

The Man in the Woman's Shoes

Written & Performed by Mikel Murfi

Wed 17 & Thu 18 Jul, 8pm | €19/17

Mikel Murfi's wildly successful solo play returns once more to Pavilion Theatre. Set in October 1978 (Pope John Paul the First is not long dead), The Man In The Woman's Shoes follows Pat Farnon as he walks to the road to town and back, to attend to "some business". It is a beautifully observed piece; utterly simple, funny, tender and at times downright daft. This hilariously funny play will leave you feeling uplifted.

Following sell-out runs at Edinburgh Fringe Festival and London's National Theatre, this multi-award winning production comes to Pavilion Theatre as part of Dublin Theatre Festival.

In September 2004, the greatest of evils (terrorists) chose the greatest of good (a group of children) as their victim. For three days, 1,200 people were held hostage by terrorists in a school in Beslan, a small town near the Russia and Chechnya border.

Retold from the perspective of two fictional characters, a young boy and girl, Us/Them is not a straightforward account of this tragedy but is about the entirely individual way children cope with extreme situations.

Us/Them is a thrilling piece of international theatre created for young people and adults alike. It uses both humour and a matter-of-fact approach, combined with dynamic physical storytelling and breathtaking choreography to strikingly show that for children, things which seem incomprehensible in the eyes of adults have their own logic.
